

"Father, I have sinned against Heaven and you."

The son had sinned and turned away from the father. When the son was sorry for his sin, he returned to the father, who was so happy to see his son. He forgave his son and embraced him in love and mercy.

